CENTRAL VALLEY COUNTY LAW ENFORCEMENT AND VICTIM RIGHTS LEADERSHIP TO HOLD PRESS CONFERENCE TO OPPOSE GOVERNOR JERRY BROWN'S EARLY RELEASE OF VIOLENT CRIMINALS PROPOSITION 57

WHAT: Press conference to announce opposition of Proposition 57, the early release of violent criminals initiative. To discuss crimes such as rape of an unconscious victim and others – like the Brock Turner case being deemed “non violent” and eligible for early release.

WHERE: Fresno County Deputy Sheriff Association 1360 Van Ness Avenue
Fresno, CA 93721

WHEN: Thursday, September 1, 2016 at 2:30 p.m.

WHO: Merced County District Attorney Larry Morse (Campaign State Co-Chair)
Fresno County Sheriff Margaret Mims
Fresno County District Attorney Lisa Smittcamp
Tulare County District Attorney Tim Ward
Three Strikes Author Mike Reynolds
The Honorable Bill Jones
Clovis Police Officers Association
Fresno Police Officers Association
Other Central Valley Law Enforcement Leaders

WHY: The so-called “Public Safety and Rehabilitation Act” (PROPOSITION 57) overturns four decades of criminal justice laws that have lowered crime rates in California. The Proposition allows tens of thousands of violent, dangerous and career criminals to be released early.
