Mental Health Services Oversight and Accountability Commission (MHSOAC)	Reviewed all three INN Plans. Regarding INN-03 it was felt that the kind of open, flexible wellness center that is proposed in INN-03 that includes spiritual approaches is consistent with other programs they have approved.
California Institute for Mental Health	Reviewed INN-03, saw no problems with it. Referred Fresno County to www.mhspirit.org where scientific studies and information can be found regarding spirituality and Mental Health.
Mental Health Spirituality Initiative	President Obama has a White House Office of Faith-Based Initiatives and Neighborhood Partnerships http://www.whitehouse.gov/administration/eop/ofbnp . The National Institutes of Health funds research on Contemporary and Alternative Medicine ( http://nccam.nih.gov/ ) which has shown symptom relief from activities such as Tai Chi and Qi Gong. This saves money and resources and has fewer side effects than many clinical treatments.
